

INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY

MACHINE SHOP

It has an Integrated Management System, oriented to its continuous improvement and the achievement of its objectives, maintaining a sustainable growth, committed to the protection of its most valuable resources: the human, the environment and its assets; therefore it is committed to the prevention of environmental pollution, prevention of injuries and diseases associated with the services provided for the Manufacture of parts and pieces and Reconstruction of subcomponents of heavy machinery and industry in general, complying with factory technical standards, customers, best workshop practices, requirements applicable to the IMS, the requirements established in ISO 9001, ISO 14001, ISO 45001 and those established in the applicable legislation, as well as any requirement assumed by Machine Shop; considering the market changes and in general the context, risks and opportunities that could be related to our performance, using advanced technology, prepared and specialized human resources, equipment, processes and adequate procedures that allow the company to satisfy the requirements of its customers, being highly competitive and the preferred option in the national market, providing in each service maximum guarantee, delivery times that meet the agreed terms, as well as, the lowest cost/benefit; seeking the least impact on the environment, ensuring the welfare of human talent, considering the participation and consultation of our staff and other stakeholders, as well as the participation of our customers, ensuring the return on investment to shareholders.

JOSÉ ACOSTA

MACHINE SHOP OPERATIONS MANAGER